The ARROW of

ST. JOSEPH HIGH SCHOOL

1833 JAY STREET
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Dedication

To Our Most Blessed Mother Mary, the Queen of Mothers, and to the Mothers of all the Seniors, the 1954 ARROW is respectfully dedicated with the sincerest sentiments of gratitude for the watchful and loving care they have taken of us during this early chapter of our young lives. We are determined, with the help of God's grace to demonstrate our appreciation down through the years by always being worthy sons of our most excellent mothers.

Who shall find a valiant woman?
A woman of prayer
    Clothed in strength and beauty
    Rendering good and not evil
    A woman who fears the Lord?
A woman of principle
    Who has achieved by counsel of her hands
    Considered and acted with wisdom
    Has put herself to strong things?
A woman of personality
    Caring for her own
    Stretching forth to the needy
    Giving in kindness and laughter and love?
We have found her in you, Dear Lady,
Queen of our school,
And to You we dedicate these pages.

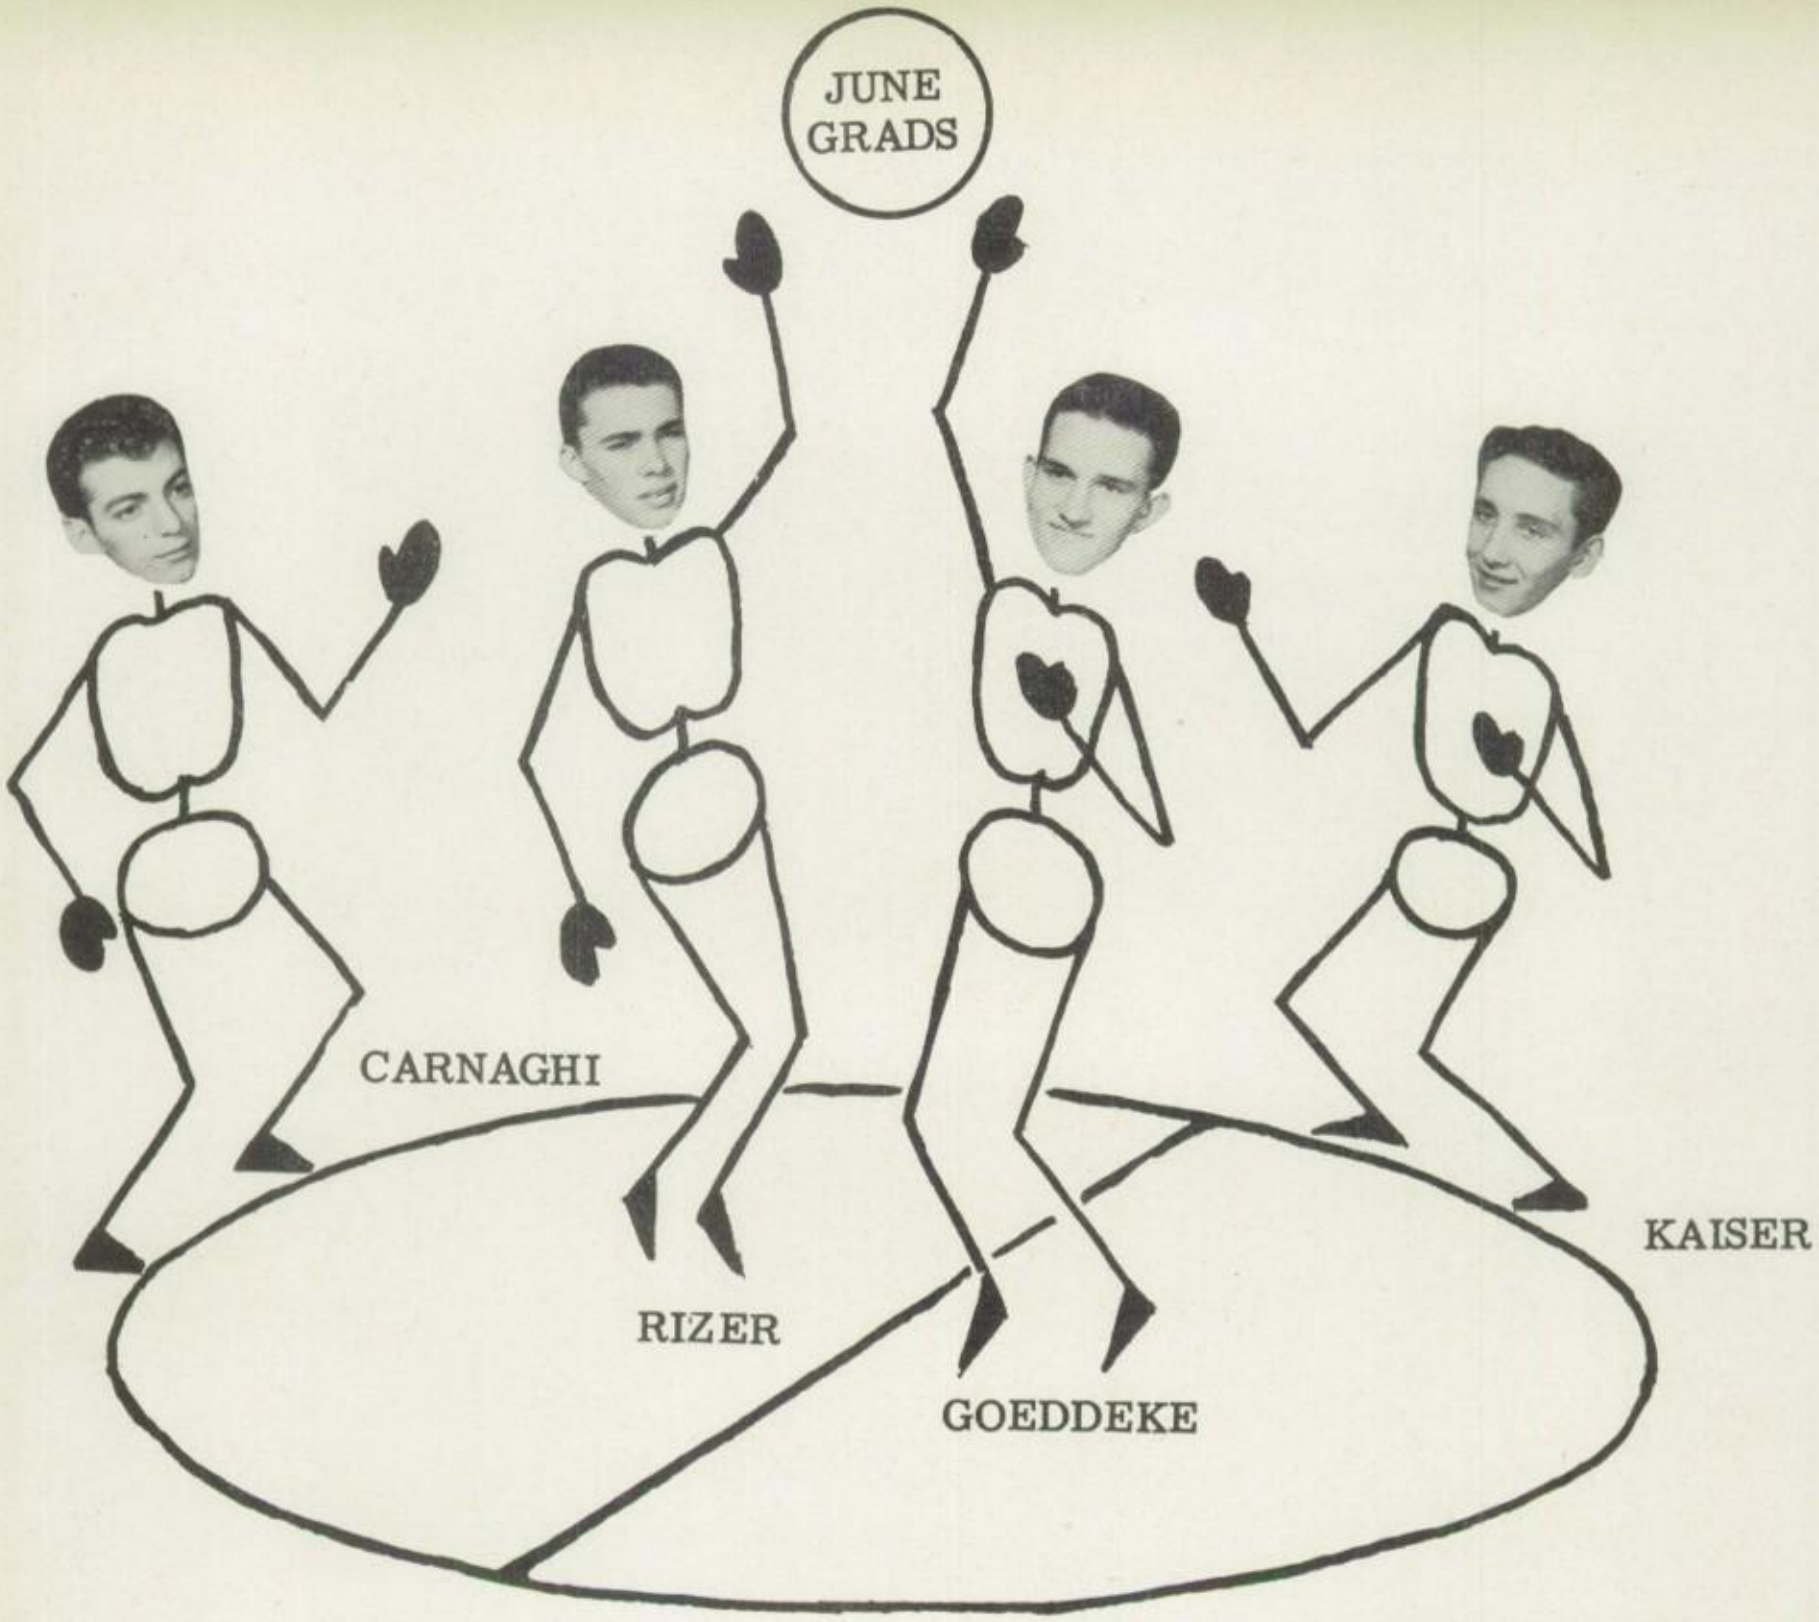
"BIG" NORM (6'6")
LOOKS FOR "BIG" THINGS FOR NEXT YEAR



NO ONE EVER GOT HURT ON THE CORNERS OF A SQUARE DEAL

These Preps Are Meet's Giant Killers:

Play of St. Joseph's Big Story of Tourney

By George Maskin

Take nothing away from favored Highland Park . . . or unbeaten Lansing Sexton . . . or courageous Fordson's defending champions.

But the BIG story of the State Class A high school basketball championships so far is being written by unheralded St. Joseph from Detroit's east side.

In seven previous years as an "A" school, the Blue Jays never won in the state meet. Each time it was strictly a one shot and out deal for them.

Not so this time. The Jays have emerged as the giant killers of the Plymouth regional. Two straight hair-raising victories, which easily could have given a lot of fans heart failure, have put St. Joseph in tomorrow night's final against Fordson.

Come Back to Win

The Blue Jays, again rated a nobody when the meet began, spotted Dearborn a 15-point lead Wednesday night and then came back to win, 47-45, on Gino Paliaroli's basket with 10 seconds to go. Last night's 35-34 conquest of St. Anthony truly was one for the books.

The Jays trailed by a point and St. Anthony had the ball. Fewer than five seconds remained. Then came the break. St. Anthony fumbled and lost the ball. It rolled over the St. Anthony back line and St. Joseph called time out. The timer announced one second remained.

Each side mapped its strategy. St. Joseph had one play. Pass the ball high to six-six Norman Muller so he could take a bat at it and trust to luck the one-in-a-million effort would click. The assignment of passing the ball was given to Dick Rizer.

St. Anthony, with its only tall player fouled out, put everybody around Muller, but none reached even to his shoulder.

Time was whistled in. Rizer took the ball, tossed it high toward Muller, who batted it right through the hoop in the most stirring state tourney finish in many a day. It was Muller's only basket of the night coupled with a free throw.

St. Anthony led St. Joseph, 34 to 33, with one second left. After a timeout St. Joseph put the ball in play under its own basket. The ball was thrown high to Muller standing at one side and the six-foot-six St. Joseph center, guarded by three, players, batted it through the hoop as the game ended.

Titlists Lead All the Way:

Tractors Down Jays For Regional Banner

Fordson's 1953 state champs hopped another hurdle in its battle to repeat by beating Detroit St. Joseph, 60-51, Saturday night to cop the Class A regional basketball crown at Plymouth

Although never trailing, the Tractors received a big scare from St. Joseph, the "Cinderella team' of the meet which previously had scored two upsets, when the Blue Jays pulled within five points of a tie late in the fourth period.

But the loss of star Tom Goeddeke with 2:06 left to go disrupted the Jays' comeback and Fordson triumphed going away.

The Tractors took an 18-0 lead in the first period, led 30-18 at the half and 46-37 after three periods. Jerry Calloway threw in 21 points on nine baskets and three fouls to set the pace for the winners. Gerry Wolters followed with 14.

				Muller	4	3	11
Totals	22	16	60	Totals	19	15	51

Halftime: Fordson 30, St. Joseph 18

The game-of-the-night found St. Joseph spotting Dearborn a 21-11 first-period lead, trailing by seven at the half and then unleashing a devastating third quarter assault to go ahead 40-36. With 10 seconds to go, Gino Paliaroli's only basket of the night broke a 45-45 tie and won the game.

By HARVEY BARCUS

Coach Joe Creedon won't have any fingernails left if St. Joseph High continues to win the close ones in the Class A basketball regional at Plymouth.

Creedon gave his nails a good going over Wednesday night as St. Joseph beat Dearborn in the last 10 seconds. He did an even better job on them last night before 6-foot-6 Norm Muller tapped the ball through the rim with one second left and St. Joseph conquered St. Anthony, 35-34. The loser was the Parochial League's East Side First Division champion.

St. Anthony led, 34-33, when St. Joseph called time out to stop the clock. Muller took a pass out when play was resumed and sank it as the game ended. Tom Goeddeke, of St. Joseph, and Tony Stefani, St. Anthony, each scored 12 points.

St. Joseph meets Fordson's state champions for the regional crown tomorrow night at 8. Fordson put out Catholic Central, 54-49, after the game was tied, 32-32, at the end of the third quarter. St. Joseph hasn't won a regional title since 1931 when it triumphed at Pontiac.

"THANKS"

Perhaps this would be the place for the staff to express its gratitude to all the friends who have contributed to this publication.

Every Senior, with a few exceptions, reached his quota leaving a record for others to follow. We cannot overlook those who did many times their share in soliciting patrons and ads. Special recognition goes to Edward Soest, John Getz, Tim Sloan, Rene Peters, Matthew VandenBoom, Roy Neumann, Slawomir Marciniec, Dominic Orlando, Ronald Miller, Joe LaGrasso, Ben Gravel, Larry Handley, John Achatz, James Miller, Gerald Hepp, Robert Ricard, Charles Ciaramitaro, George Buyse, Pat Ernest, Herbert Mansfield, Paul Sute, Richard Hoffer, Robert Caringi, Alan Young, Elden Rinke, Frank Markie, Anthony Cilenti, Lawrence Gietzen, and Brent Biehl. Also for the expert advice and help of 'Al' Weatherly of Litho-Art and Manager Maurice Gies, and the entire staff of Powell Photographic Studios, we are deeply indebted.

It has been hard work causing many headaches but we are glad to send it forth to sing the praises of St. Joseph High School and the sacrifices of our parents, teachers and friends.

To all those who take this book with them--we hope that it will be a source of many happy memories of a school... St. Joseph High School.

The staff is grateful to the underclassmen, who helped the editors. They may rest assured of fine cooperation when they will be publishing their annuals.

From every member of the staff for all the help and cooperation received, we say a "MILLION THANKS."

. . . only the beginning

Ever stop to think what the world was like before electricity became everybody's servant? It's difficult to picture! Electric power serves so faithfully we just take it for granted.

Edison's incandescent lamp, heralding the birth of modern electric service, finally became more than a dream 75 years ago. To help turn this dream into reality, other men provided the finances Edison needed. Their joint achievement is an example of how financial risk-taking and individual ingenuity combine to the benefit of all people.

But our present way of living is only the beginning. Electricity promises for the future still greater marvels and better service.

It requires men and women with many skills to provide this service. If you would like to work with such people why not get in touch with Edison's Employment Office?
